Word

1. How would you describe what a Christian is?
2. Let's take this passage (3:1-14) in chunks to help us understand what Paul is saying. Read Galatians 3:1-5. Paul begins with a series of questions. How is this an effective tool in getting his point across?
3. In this passage Paul is addressing the pull between faith and works. He tells the readers that they have already experienced that faith in what Jesus did on the cross is the only way to be right with God, yet they seem to be living as if following all of God's commands will save them. Give examples of how we often continue to live in this "works based" mindset.
4. Now read 3:6-14. When we live in the truth that we can't possibly be good enough to earn God's favor, what saves us?
5. Abraham was righteous because of his faith in God. Do we live like this is true for us today? Why or why not? What holds us back?
6. What would it look like and feel like to have freedom in Jesus?
